FACULTY & STAFF

Dr. David Benjamin, associate professor of Global Development, has been appointed a member of the Yale Ferguson Book Award Committee for International Relations Theory by the International Studies Association. The award will be presented at the Annual Convention of International Studies Association in Toronto in March 2019.

Dr. Michael Lohle, senior lecturer in the College of Engineering, Business and Education, published an article in the journal Issues in Information Systems titled, “Approaching an Axiom: Testing a Grounded Theory Developed for Online Student Team Projects on Campus,” with Professor Steven Terrell of Nova Southeastern University. The study tested the validity of a grounded theory developed to help online instructors manage virtual student-team projects by examining students’ lived experience on similar campus-based projects.

Dr. Paul Sherman, associate director of Academic Affairs, UB School of Chiropractic, presented two four-hour postgraduate teleseminars on Medicare documentation. These teleseminars focused on the federal Medicare guidelines and protocols pertaining to documentation of chiropractic services. Presentations were done on September 8 and September 22 through Chirocredit.com, a continuing education website for chiropractic physicians throughout the country.

Did we miss something? UB Highlights is published twice monthly during the academic year and monthly in January, June, and July to inform the University community about UB events and achievements. To comment or to list your event or award, e-mail Debra Kirouac at UBHighlights@bridgeport.edu.
